VOL. XXV, No. 31.

TALE OF TWO COUNTIES.

As Sent in by the Times' Correspondents from Neosho and Wilson Counties.

Erie Wednesday April 21, 1897.—Ira Garvin returned home Friday, last, from Oswego where he has been acting as night operator for the Katy.

E. B. Rall and Sam'l Bender of Kimball were attending court the latter part of the week.

John F. Roe and wife of Chanute spent Easter with friends and relatives in this city.

The Ladies of the M. E. church gave an Easter supper in the Steinberger building Saturday night.

Dr. H. G. Steinberger of Coffeyville is visiting his brother Dr. I. Steinberger in this city this week.

C. E. Locke, the efficient and accommodating Deputy Register of Deeds was reading signs in Walnut, Sunday.

David Halfin, a well known carpenter of this city is very low with Pneumonia. There seems to be no hope for his recovery.

We have heard of summer resorts, but never before heard of a Sunday resort until C. E. Locke began Sunday trips to Walnut.

F. J. Benedict of Hastings, Nebraska, who was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Benedict last week, returned home Friday night.

H. Loege, Mr. and Mrs. L. Stillwell Miss Jennie Harbaugh and C. S. Dennison went to Chanute today noon to attend the Encampment. Quite a crowd will go up tomorrow.

The following attorneys have been in attendance to court during the past week: John J. Jones, H. P. Farrelly, C. A. Cox and B. F. Shinn of Chanute, and W. D. Atkinson, T. N. Sedgwick and C. H. Kimball of Parsons.

Erie is very well supplied with dentists this week. Drs. F. E. Doering of Coffeyville, A. R. Goddard of Olathe, W. E. Cutler of St. Paul and Means of Garnett are all in the city. The two latter have located here.

We understand that A. J. Huffman brother to Mrs. J. J. Stratton of this city who was injured with the cyclone recently at Chandler, Okla., by having his hand crushed, is seriously ill; blood poisoning having set in on his wound.

Mable Wilson, infant daughter of Geo W. Wilson met with a very painful accident Saturday. While sitting on the floor near the cook stove playing, her mother accidentally tipped a dishpan of hot water on her, scalding her very severely all over her right side. She is much better at this writing.

Misses Rena Prange, Blanche Harbaugh, Effie Mason and Lizzie Grable, Mesdames J. W. Sullivan, M. H. Kennedy and A. H. Osborn, and Messrs F. E. George, F. O. Lodge, Harry Garvin C. S. Dennison and J. C. Dennison were among the many who spent Easter in St. Paul.

Many cases of "Grippe" have lately been cured by One Minute Cough Cure. This prepared seems especially adapted to the cure of this disease. It acts quickly, thus preventing serious complications and bad effects in which this disease often leaves the patient.—Boschert & Williams.

St. Paul.

Wednesday, April 21.—Jerry Shea, who formerly lived here, was killed in the switch yards at Joplin last Friday. The remains were taken to St. Louis for burial. Miss Beccy Price, of this city, his intended, went to St. Louis last Saturday to attend the funeral.

Sam Murphey spent last week in Parsons.

The Katy Flyer was abandoned last Saturday.

Miss Mattie Molesworth spent Easter in Parsons.

J. J. Ryan is building an addition to his residence.

Mr. Clark, the Erie liveryman, was intown last week.

Sam Venum, Sr., made a trip to Parsons last week.

Mell Muller, of Pittsburg, spent Easter in our city.

E. A. Mapes and wife made a trip Walnut last Monday.

Biddy McGee is having an addition built to his residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Green were in town last Wednesday.

Fred and Arthur Johnson were down from Erie Easter.

Quite a number of people from Erie spent Sunday in St. Paul.

Ross Hackney was in town this week shaking hands with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Maguire, of Fort Scott, spent Easter in St. Paul.

Miss Nellie Devin went to Fort Scott last Friday to spend Easter.

Dr. C. Ballain and Miss Sadie Null made a trip to Galesburg last Monday.

Mrs. C. E. Null, of Kansas City, is visiting the family of W. H. Null this week.

Mrs. F. A. Norwood is having her residence property painted and repaired.

Mr. and Mrs. Boughts and Miss Keys, of Erie, spent last Thursday in St. Paul.

Mr. Coyne, of Richland, Kansas, is visiting the family of Mike Morarity this week.

Misses Alma Collins and Dora Woodruff, of Walnut, are visiting Mrs. F. A. Norwood.

There is always a large crowd in St. Paul on Easter, and last Sunday was no exception.

Mrs. C. E. Benedict and Mrs. Frank Hardesty, of Chanute, were shopping in St. Paul last Thursday.

J. A. Hutchings is on his farm north of Erie this week where he is making some improvements.

C. U. Bacon and daughter Ella, of South Mound, were in town Monday. Miss Bacon is getting up a music class.

George Singleton and Miss Etta Kendall were married at Galesburg last Thursday. The bride lived here some years ago and was well liked by all. They came to St. Paul the same day they were married and spent a few days with the bride's parents here.

Last Monday was a big day at College Hall. A large dinner was served. Football and baseball were other features of the day. An entertainment was given in the evening by the pupils of the St. Francis School. A large crowd was out and everybody had a good time.

Austin Clark and family had a very narrow escape from being drowned last Sunday. While fording the river, which is up a little, the wagon was carried away. Seizing his wife and eldest son, he took them to the bank, swam back, caught the other two children just as they were sinking the third time, and brought them safely to the shore.

If you have ever seen a child in the agony of croup, you can appreciate the gratitude of the mothers who know that One Minute Cough Cure relieves their little ones as quickly as it is administered. Many homes in this city are never without it.—Boschert & Williams.

Urbana.

Tuesday, April 20.—John Carkwell is around this week finding out how much we are worth. Everybody is very poor just now.

A good shower Sunday night.

Favorable weather for farming.

Widow Lyons is on the sick list.

Mr. Richman was in town today on business.

Will Flinn says there is more flax put in this spring than last.

Mrs. Dryden has been very sick the past week, but is better now.

The entertainment here Saturday evening was a complete success.

The musical entertainment here last week by the Schuyler Family was well attended.

A number of old comrades from here will attend the Encampment of the G. A. R. at Chanute this week.

Farmers are putting in a very large acreage of corn, and if the season proves favorable there will be a large crop produced.

Ben Yockey has had more trouble with his well on the Iles place. Two pieces of stone caved in this time and wedged his drill.

There is an old fashioned man in this neighborhood who used to "furry" his ground and "drap" his corn by hand and "kiver" it with a hoe.

The prospects for fruit of all kind is very good in this neighborhood. The cold weather has kept back the bloom until the danger of being killed by frost is past.

E. E. Turner of Compton, Mo., writes us that after suffering from piles for seventeen years, he completely cured them by using three boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It cures eczema and severe skin diseases.—Boschert & Williams.

Neosho Valley.

Monday April 19, 1897.—The rain of the 18th will be a benefit to land that was plowed wet.

Mrs. McColley visited her daughter in Chanute, Sunday.

Messrs Blackburn and George have sprayed their apple trees.

Mrs. William Krouse is quite sick, being under the care of Dr. Hickey.

From the abundance of blossoms on the trees, our fruit prospect looks fine.

Mr. Howell was quite severely bitten by Joe Thurman's dog one day last week.

Mrs. Downing returned Wednesday from Fredonia, where she was visiting her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurt from Big Creek spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Jim George.

Mrs. S. S. Dickinson of Larned, Kas. sister of D. L. Houston is here on a visit and attending the G. A. R. encampment.

Dr. Barker has set out about three hundred evergreen trees; he is having his orchard trimmed, and is making other improvements on his farm, lately purchased from Mrs. Garrouthe. He also talks of erecting a windmill for irrigating his orchard.

It is surprising what a "wee bit of a thing" can accomplish. Sick headache, constipation, dyspepsia, sour stomach, dizziness, are quickly banished by DeWitt's Little Early Risers Small pill. Safe pill. Best pill.—Boschert & Williams.

Vilas.

Wednesday, April 21.—Well boys what's the matter with having a good baseball team? Think about it and act.

Early sown flax is up and looks fine. J. E. Hanson has sown sixty acres of flax.

Dr. Thielen has purchased a new buggy.

Measles are still prevailing in this
